GUIDELINES FOR FRESH RECOGNITION OF SCIENTIFIC AND INDUSTRIAL RESEARCH ORGANISATIONS (SIROs)

1. PREAMBLE

The Recognition Scheme for Scientific and Industrial Research Organisations (SIROs) will bring together voluntary organizations operating in non-commercial sector with a view to promote their activities in the area of scientific and industrial research, design and development of indigenous technology to achieve technological self-reliance and minimize foreign inputs. The Organisations seeking support under the scheme will undertake activities for the extension of knowledge in the field of natural and applied sciences, agricultural, medical and social sciences. Functional SIROs having clearly stated objectives of undertaking scientific research, broad based Governing Council, Research Advisory Committee, research personnel, infrastructure facilities for research, well defined, time bound research programmes and clearly stated objectives of undertaking scientific research are considered eligible for recognition by DSIR.

The SIROs recognised by DSIR (other than hospitals) are eligible for customs duty exemption and excise duty waiver on import of equipment/instruments and their spares and consumables; under notification nos. 51/96-Customs dated 23.7.1996 and 10/97-Central Excise dated 1.3.1997 respectively. The recognition would help them to evolve research infrastructure by way of overall administrative support assistance and other assistance as may be necessary for the efficient working of a research-oriented organization.

2. ORGANISATIONS ELIGIBLE FOR CONSIDERATION

The following types of organizations are eligible for recognition:

- a. Associations: An association will be a society/trust registered under the Societies registration Act, 1860 or any such act passed by the State Government. The sole objective of the association should be to undertake scientific and/or industrial research.
- b. R&D Companies: A company which has been incorporated under Section 25 of the old Companies Act, 1956 or Section 8 under the New companies Act, 2013 and set up for engaging in R&D activities. The sole objective of the company should be to undertake scientific and/or industrial research.
- c. Institutions:
 - I Scientific institution having adequate infrastructural facilities to undertake scientific and/or industrial research and having undertaking of scientific and/or industrial research as a main object of the institution.
 - II Professional bodies having undertaking/promoting the undertaking of scientific and/or industrial research as main object.
- d. Universities: A university established or incorporated by or under a Central or State Act and includes an institution declared under section 3 of the University Grants Commission Act, 1956 (3 of 1956) to be University for the purposes of the Act.
- e. Colleges: A college undertaking scientific research (in the specific disciplines), should be affiliated to a university as above and should not be just a teaching institution. It should have identifiable research and development centre with adequate infrastructure to carry out focused scientific and/or industrial research. To establish this, the college should submit the affiliation letter and a certificate from the Vice-Chancellor of the university to which it is affiliated.

3. HOW TO APPLY

The applicants seeking fresh recognition are required to submit online application through DSIR website (www.dsir.gov.in) or through the Portal Link: (<https://serviceonline.gov.in/dbt>). After successful submission of online application send one set of hard copy (.pdf, generated by the system) signed by the Head/Chairman/Director of the Organization to DSIR along with all relevant enclosures, like:

- i. A copy of the memorandum & Articles of Association of the company/society or Trust deed etc (in case of there are any changes, please highlight the same).
- ii. Latest annual report of the SIRO
- iii. A note on the R&D activities of the SIRO, highlighting the on-going & proposed research activities, details of past achievements/completed research projects.
- iv. A brief write-up on some of the major past achievements, ongoing and future projects.
- v. Details of scientific personnel working in the R&D unit(s) along with qualifications & designation
- vi. Details of infrastructure available for research giving the date of installation & value of all major facilities.

4. PROCEDURE FOR GRANTING RECOGNITIONS

- i. The applications received are scrutinized for their completeness in the DSIR and are then circulated for comments to various departments/agencies such as CSIR, ICAR, ICMR, ICSSR, UGC and other organizations as per requirement.
- ii. In order to obtain first hand information on R&D activities of the applicant organisations, discussions with the Head R&D of the organisation and other senior officials of the organization are also held in DSIR in many cases. During the discussions outside experts are invited and their comments are sought.
- iii. The organisations seeking recognition are visited, if need be, by expert teams comprising of representatives of DSIR as well as outside agencies, like, administrative Ministries, CSIR, NRDC, DBT, ICAR, ICMR, DRDO, DIT, DoT, IITs and local educational and Research Institutions as applicable, before they are taken up for consideration.
- iv. The applications along with comments from outside agencies, visit reports and the Department's own evaluation are considered by an Inter-Departmental Screening Committee (SC) in DSIR with members from CSIR, ICMR, ICAR, ICSSR and UGC. The recommendations of the Screening Committee are put up for approval of Secretary, DSIR. The recognition is effective from the date of the meeting of the Screening Committee in which it is approved. Recognition with retrospective effect is not granted.

- v. The period for which recognition is granted would generally be 3 years terminating on the 31st March of the third financial year. However, in certain cases this recognition may be granted for a shorter period.
- vi. There is no separate 'Registration for SIROs'; SIROs recognised by DSIR are issued certificate of registration, if they are found eligible.
- vii. The SIROs recognised by DSIR (other than hospitals) are eligible for customs duty exemption and excise duty waiver on import of equipment/instruments and their spares and consumables; under notification nos. 51/96-Customs dated 23.7.1996 and 10/97-Central Excise dated 1.3.1997 respectively. "Hospital" includes any Institution, Centre, Trust, Society, Association, Laboratory, Clinic or Maternity Home which renders medical, surgical or diagnostic treatment.

5. CRITERIA FOR RECOGNITION:

- i. SIROs should be functional, having broad based Governing Council/ Management Committee which control and guide the Institution.
- ii. SIROs should have a broad based Research Advisory Committee (RAC) to include eminent scientists, engineers and technologists relevant to the discipline of service in which the organization is engaged. RAC would be constituted by the Organisation to oversee and evaluate the research activities.
- iii. The Organisation shall have identifiable research and development centre with adequate Infrastructural facilities and resources for undertaking/promoting, as the case may be, of scientific and/or industrial research. There should be clear segregation between the profit and non-profit making entities. They should have full time research personnel and separate identifiable infrastructural facilities for carrying out R&D work.
- iv. They should have well defined, time bound research programmes leading to development of innovative products and/or technology(ies) that are documented. While activities relating to training, awarding scholarships, rewarding scientists, organizing symposia etc. are also generally undertaken by scientific research bodies, they would not by themselves constitute undertaking or promoting the undertaking of scientific research.
- v. The organisation should have clearly stated objectives of undertaking/supporting scientific research. In case of associations, they should fund research programmes and at least provide fellowships to PG/Doctoral students.
- vi. Depending on the area of operation the organisations should have Ethics committee, Bio-safety committee or any such regulatory committees/mechanism, need based.
- vii. The organisation should have research publications, collaborations with national & international institutional, wherever necessary.
- viii. Trusts of the nature of a partnership or family concern would not be eligible for approval as a scientific Research Organisation.

- ix. The Organisation should be non-profit oriented. All amounts received by way of sale of know-how premium and royalty, fee charged for a research project including testing fee etc. should be used as reinvestment by the organization for undertaking research.

6. CONDITION FOR RECOGNITION

- i. The Organisation which has been recognized under this scheme will maintain a separate account of the sums received by it for research.
- ii. The organization will furnish a copy of annual report of its research activities to the Department at the end of every financial year. The report shall cover a brief summary of achievements made, papers published, patents filed, products/technologies developed or improved, etc.
- iii. The Organisation will submit to the Department each year a copy of audited annual returns showing the total income and expenditure and balance sheet showing its assets and liabilities. The auditor should certify that the amounts incurred are for research.
- iv. Assets acquired for research by organizations out of funds received should not be disposed off or transferred in favour of the promoter companies or to other agencies without the specific approval of the Department.
- v. Approval granted to an organization is on the basis of its Memorandum of Association and other documents submitted. Any change in the Memorandum of the Association must therefore have the written approval of the Department.

7 PROCEDURE FOR SIROS ALREADY RECOGNIZED BY DSIR

The SIROs are advised to apply offline for renewal of recognition well in advance (3 months prior to the date of expiry of recognition). Such applications received for renewal of recognition are examined by Research Review Group (RRG). Based on the evaluation made by the RRG, renewal of recognition is granted to the SIROs. Renewal of recognition is granted for periods ranging from 2 to 3 years
